EVENT INFORMATION

CAROUSEL PRIVATE PARTY ROOMS

Woodland Park Zoo's Historic Carousel features hand-carved vintage carousel horses and two chariots, one of which has been retrofitted to accommodate wheelchairs. Dedicated in 2006, the Historic Carousel was a gift from Linda and Tom Allen and the Alleniana Foundation. Solar panels were added in 2011 with help from Seattle City Light, producing enough energy to offset the carousel's 100,000 annual rides.

A wall of windows provides the Carousel Party Rooms with a full view of the carousel, and the one-way glass maintains privacy. The two rooms are equal in size with access to the carousel and outdoors.

If your guest count exceeds the number of people included in your package, thus exceeding room capacity, you may be subject to certain repercussions as outlined in your reservation agreement. All guests must have their admission fees paid for as part of the party package total regardless of the guests' membership status. This is due to utilizing the private event space.

DECORATIONS AND PARTY SUPPLIES

The Carousel Party rooms include carousel horse cut-outs on two walls and the best feature of all – a view of the carousel itself!

Party host is welcome to hang décor from the walls with masking or painters tape. Fasteners that leave a mark or residue are not permitted. We encourage the use of compostable or recyclable party supplies and decor. There are garbage, recycling and compost receptacles in each party room.

Tables measure 6' x 2 ½' – party host is encouraged to bring in table cloths.

RESTRICTIONS

The health and well-being of our animals is our primary goal. As such, certain items are prohibited on zoo grounds, including: balloons, straws, piñatas, balls, Frisbees and other flying objects, confetti, glitter, clowns, mascots, costumes and other “circus” type items, pets, skateboards, bicycles and firearms.
