CHEF DAVID VAN GELDER

As a kid growing up in Mobile, Alabama, Chef David Van Gelder's kitchen was a playground full of interesting recipes, and each day was an opportunity to learn from his grandma's culinary talents. His childhood was spent experimenting with creative recipes and absorbing culinary lessons from family members, leading him to pursue culinary school in Portland, Oregon at the Western Culinary Institute.

After completing his education and training, a family member connected Chef David to a career opportunity on private ship and yacht kitchens. This role shaped his drive and desire to make the guest experience unique and personalized. Having such personal one-on-one time with small groups helped mold his cooking skills, favorite recipes, and his dedication to making each meal an unforgettable experience.

Chef David found his way back to land and became the Executive Chef at Teatro Zizanni, a circus dinner theater experience, creating meals for hundreds of guests each day. He later joined Apulent Events and Catering. As he continued to grow as a chef, David pivoted to quick service meals specifically served in both food trucks and brick and mortar stores as the Chef de Cuisine for Skillet Street Food, a famous eatery in Seattle, Washington.

He credits his career progression and growth to his relationships within the culinary industry; it was paramount for him to create relationships in each of his roles, working with those on his team to cultivate exemplary support and leadership in the kitchen.

Chef David then found his way to the Woodland Park Zoo, a main stay in his personal life as he actively visited with friends and family before joining the Woodland Park Zoo team. He currently shapes the catering and concessions program, making the entire guest experience at the zoo an incredible one. Chef David is thankful to be located in the Pacific Northwest where he has the ability to build menus based on each season, taking advantage of local fresh produce and ingredients. From the summer concert series to new menu designs, he is continually innovating the culinary program at the zoo because there's always something new and exciting coming around the corner.

Our Sustainability Story

Levy Cares

Levy Cares pairs passion with social responsibility. As the charitable wing of Levy, Levy Cares focuses on community outreach and sustainability. We partner with national organizations like the Salvation Army and the Ronald McDonald House, as well as local charities and organizations, like the Chicago Lights Urban Farm, in each of the communities where Levy has a location.

Compass Pillars for Sustainable Purchasing

(Percentages shown are Levy's score card within the Compass Group network)

12.6% Local produce in support of the American Family Farms

72% Certified Humane cage-free (shell) eggs

90% Fluid milk free of artificial growth hormones &
95% Yogurt free of artificial growth hormones

79% Chicken produced without the routine use of humane antibiotics & 86% Turkey produced without the routine use of humane antibiotics

18% Seafood from sustainable sources
(Seafood Watch Criteria)

40% Eco/ FairTrade Certified Coffee

Case Studies

1. Going Straw-Free

Levy has begun to transition our locations to straw-free environments. In an effort to protect our oceans and the environment, we are moving away from plastic straws.

500 million plastic straws are thrown away every day in the United States, and with as many large venues as Levy runs, we have a great opportunity to make a positive impact on reducing this number.

In April 2018, Dignity Health Sports Park (previously StubHub Center) made a commitment to offer paper straws upon request to minimize plastic straw pollution and became the first soccer-specific stadium in Major League Soccer to serve drinks during games without a plastic straw. This commitment by the stadium is also part of the Protect the Pitch sustainability program.

2. Stop Food Waste Day NYC

Stop Food Waste Day is a Compass Group initiative that fights food waste with awareness and education. With a goal to reduce overall food waste by 25% by the year 2020, Compass Group's Stop Food Waste Day has spanned to 34 countries and already been successful in diverting millions of pounds of food from landfills.

In 2019, the Stop Food Waste Day initiative expanded beyond the official day of action and the first Stop Food Waste Day NYC event was held at the Javits Center. Working with local sustainability partners as well as national sustainability groups, the Javits Center and their dining and hospitality brand, Cultivated, served and showcased sustainable dishes that also reduce food waste.

3. Woodland Park Zoo

At the Woodland Park Zoo (WPZ) in Seattle, sustainability and conservation are at the heart of the Zoo's culture and practices. Starting with the complete elimination of Styrofoam from the WPZ for serving food, most of the vehicles that food and beverages are served in are actually compostable. All of the fruit, ice cream, coffee, milk, vegetables, and bread served at the WPZ are locally sourced, as are many of the WPZ's meats and beer. Going one step further, the WPZ is actively achieving their goal of diverting as much as possible from landfills, helping promote a sustainable future.

Following the Levy company-wide sustainable purchasing practices, the WPZ strictly adheres to the Seafood Watch regulations for all of their fish products. During food preparation, Levy and WPZ team members employ the Levy-wide Compass Group program of Waste Not, an online waste tracking tool that measures food waste and helps our chefs track and cut back on overall waste. And finally, when it comes to trash, the WPZ sorts all of their own trash to comply with the Pacific Northwest's Cedar Grove sustainability practices.
